The Master of Science in Accounting and Business Advisory Services at Towson University is a joint program with the University of Baltimore. Graduates of the Master of Science in Accounting and Business Advisory Services program will have the necessary background in accounting and analytics to pursue careers in accounting, auditing, taxation, or management consulting.

The M.S. in Accounting and Business Advisory Services received STEM designation from the Department of Homeland Security. STEM refers to programs in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics disciplines. Data analytics, financial analysis, information systems, and quantitative analysis are integral to the higher-level skills impacting the accounting profession. STEM designation allows graduates of the program with F-1 visas to remain in the United States an additional 24 months under the optional practical training STEM extension. TU's accounting and business advisory services M.S. receives STEM designation – Business Dialog (towson.edu)

This program is designed to meet the following learning objectives:

First, when combined with a bachelor's degree in accounting, the program allows students to earn the additional units necessary to meet the 150-hour requirement to sit for the Uniform Certified Public Accountant (CPA) exam in Maryland and many other states. The CPA exam includes four sections consisting of three core sections and one discipline section. The three core sections of the CPA exam are:

1. Financial Accounting and Reporting (FAR)
2. Auditing and Attestation (AUD)
3. Taxation and Regulation (REG)

Discipline Section (4th Section): CPA exam candidates select one discipline section from the following:

- Business Analysis and Reporting (BAR)
- Information Systems and Controls (ISC)
- Tax Compliance and Planning (TCP)

Students planning to take the CPA exam will be best served by a program of study, such as our Bachelor of Science in Accounting and this graduate program, that emphasizes the same subject matter as the exam. The combined BS and MS degrees align with the AICPA Model Curriculum.

Second, by incorporating courses in the related disciplines of data analytics, financial management and information technology, the program complements and expands the technical skills acquired in an undergraduate accounting education.

Graduates of the Master of Science in Accounting and Business Advisory Services program will have the flexibility needed to accelerate their public accounting careers or pursue careers in other areas such as management accounting, internal auditing, accounting for governmental or other nonprofit entities, and management consulting.

NOTE: Since this program is jointly operated with the University of Baltimore, the tuition, fees and grading system for students are the same as at the University of Baltimore. Contact the Student and University Billing Office for more information.

Accelerated Bachelor's-Master's Program

Requirements to be a CPA in Maryland (and in all but two of the other states) include 150 hours of post-secondary education. To provide a seamless process for Towson students to achieve the 150 hours, a program that combines the bachelor's degree in accounting and the master's degree in accounting and business Advisory Services (Accelerated Bachelor's-Masters Accounting Program) is offered.

Admitted accounting majors may apply for the accelerated Bachelor's-Masters Accounting Program in the second term of their junior year and be admitted prior to their senior year. Students can apply to the graduate Master of Science in Accounting and Business Services Program in their senior year but are not officially admitted to the graduate program until the second term of their senior year. Students must complete a graduate application with the Admissions office. In order to be admitted to the Bachelor's-Master's Accounting program, the student must be an admitted undergraduate accounting major with at least one term of residency in the university. The student also must take the GMAT and achieve a minimum score of 400 and have a GPA of at least 3.00.

9 units of graduate-level courses can be counted toward both the undergraduate and graduate programs. A bachelor's degree is awarded after all the bachelor's degree requirements are met, normally in the fourth year. The undergraduate accounting elective is fulfilled by taking any three of the required or elective graduate accounting courses in lieu of the free elective and two accounting electives.
