Students already enrolled in a master's degree program, other than Women's and Gender Studies, or those who wish to enhance their skills and understanding of a specialized arena in Women's and Gender Studies may elect to pursue the Certificate in Women's and Gender Studies. The program can be completed fully online and is designed to be completed in two semesters of study.

Advising

The graduate program director acts as the certificate student's adviser during the first term of matriculation when a program of study is planned and drafted. The student is transferred to a different adviser after the first term of enrollment.

Application of Units Earned in the WMST Certificate Program

Units earned for the Graduate Certificate Program with a grade of "B" or better may be applied to the master's degree in Women's and Gender Studies. The certificate student must complete formal application to the WMST M.S. degree for admission.
