The Master of Science degree in Music Education provides a flexible curriculum that allows students to earn up to 15 elective units in a field of specialization. In consultation with the graduate adviser, students may select a group of courses in which they are interested, such as music education, applied music, music theory, music history, music composition or other graduate areas. More than 50 percent of the course work is with graduate students only. Graduates of this program are usually employed as music teachers in public or private schools in the areas of vocal-general and/or instrumental music.

Admission Requirements

- A bachelor's degree in music education or music from a regionally accredited college or university, or certification as a public school music teacher
- A minimum GPA of 3.00 for admission. All GPA calculations for admission are based upon the last 60 units of undergraduate and post-baccalaureate study.
- An interview with music education faculty. Contact Graduate Program Director to arrange a time to meet in-person or virtually.

Non-immigrant International Students

Program Enrollment: F-1 and J-1 students are required to be enrolled full-time. The majority of their classes must be in-person and on campus. See the list of programs that satisfy these requirements (https://www.towson.edu/academics/graduate/admissions/international/programs-complying-j1-f1-regulations.html), and contact the International Student and Scholars Office (https://www.towson.edu/academics/international/isso) with questions.

Degree Requirements

Placement examinations to allow MUED-MS candidates to enroll in graduate music theory and history/culture courses are administered during Department of Music auditions dates in January, February, and March. Students may register to take the placement examination on the Department of Music Graduate Programs web page. Successful completion of those examinations is required in order for a candidate to be authorized to enroll in a theory or history/culture class. Students who do not meet minimum requirements may be required to enroll in prescribed courses, which may or may not count toward the degree.

Application Deadline

Priority will be given to students whose applications and transcripts have been received by February 1 for fall admission and November 1 for spring admission. Students who miss the priority deadline may contact the program director via email to inquire if space is still available for the forthcoming term.
