This program will be transitioning to the Transformational Educational Leadership (MS) in Spring 2019.

The Master of Science degree in Human Resource Development is an interdisciplinary program designed to provide students with specific knowledge and practical skills within a variety of human resource fields. The curriculum is designed to meet the needs of individuals with varied academic backgrounds and professional experience. The program emphasizes the application of theory and research to practical human resource issues within business, government, nonprofit organizations and education.

The Educational Leadership Track within the Human Resource Development Program is designed for certified teachers and other licensed professionals working in schools who aspire to become educational leaders and administrators at local and state levels. This program is approved by the Maryland State Department of Education (MSDE) for those seeking certification as Administrator I.

Please note that only one degree can be awarded in Human Resource Development; students who have completed a concentration in HRD (General) will not receive a second degree in HRD/Educational Leadership.
