THE POST-BACCALAUREATE CERTIFICATE IN NETWORKING TECHNOLOGIES
The Post-Baccalaureate Certificate in Networking Technologies covers the study, design, development, implementation and support of computer-based information systems with regard to sharing information over computer-based systems. This program provides graduate-level education in IT for students preparing to enter the high-tech work force and those already in the work force who wish to update and enhance their skills. This course of study can be completed as a stand-alone graduate certificate or applied to the M.S. degree program in Applied Information Technology. The program is intended for students who have a bachelor’s degree in information technology, computer science, computer information systems or a related field, who will enter the program for advanced studies. The program may also be of interest to persons who:

• Do not have a bachelor’s degree in the field, but are currently employed in the IT field and are seeking additional academic studies for professional growth or to advance their careers.
• Have a bachelor’s degree in a discipline other than IT who are seeking preparation for careers in this field.

Admission Requirements
Admission requirements for the post-baccalaureate certificate program are the same as those listed for the M.S. in Applied Information Technology. (http://catalog.towson.edu/graduate/degree-certificate-programs/jess-mildred-fisher-science-mathematics/applied-information-technology-ms)

Non-immigrant International Students
Program Enrollment: F-1 and J-1 students are required to be enrolled full-time. The majority of their classes must be in-person and on campus.
