For re-admission to the same or another degree program after the time limitation policy for completion of the degree has elapsed, the student’s records are evaluated and admission is granted under current University Admissions policy. Previous course work will be reviewed by the program director. Up to 12 units of courses taken while previously admitted may be applied to the degree if they are still part of the program curriculum within the time limit and are approved by the program director. Any courses not approved must be repeated or replaced with additional courses approved by the program director.