AFRICAN AMERICAN
STUDENT DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

The African American Student Development (AASD) Program supports, promotes and enhances the Intellectual, academic, social and personal development of students of the African Diaspora. AASD provides programs and services that enhance students’ overall experience at Towson and increase awareness and appreciation of African and African American cultures. We also assist the university in the recruitment and retention of students of the African Diaspora.