The Center for Student Diversity (CSD) provides educational, social, and outreach programs that promote and support the life and culture of students who identify as Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer+ (LGBTQ+). The LGBTQ+ Student Development program exists to create a welcoming and nurturing environment for LGBTQ+ students so that they become engaged in leadership and mentoring opportunities on campus and in the wider community.

Asian, Pacific Islander & Desi American Student Development Program

The Asian, Pacific Islander & Desi American Student Development Program supports Asian, Pacific Islander & Desi American students. AASD provides programs and services that enhance students’ overall experience at TU and increase awareness and appreciation of Asian, Afro-Caribbean and African American culture. We also assist TU in the recruitment and retention of students from these populations.

Campus Ministries

Campus Ministries represents a variety of faith communities on campus through the support of staff assigned to TU. Several campus ministers advise student religious organizations, provide personal ministry and counseling, lead theological discussions, and provide other religious and spiritual support. Campus Ministries sponsors speakers, films and discussions on contemporary issues. The goal of Campus Ministries is to promote understanding and appreciation of religious diversity and serve the religious and spiritual needs of the campus community.

Cultural Competency Education

The Cultural Competency Education Program provides training, workshops, and resources that build cultural competence and capacity for students, staff, and faculty around diversity, inclusion, identity and social justice. The program works collaboratively to enhance the cultural capacity on campus to address the needs of underrepresented and marginalized communities. Each semester, interactive workshops explore diversity’s complex and dynamic dimensions.

Latinx Student Development

The Latinx Student Development Program offers events and spearheads initiatives that focus on social, political and cultural issues pertaining to Latinx communities. The program supports Latinx students’ transition and adjustment to college life by working in close collaboration with individual students and student organizations, including the Latin American Student Organization (LASO).

Women’s Resources

The Women’s Resources program exists as the central contact for resources and support for women on campus.

The program provides a wide range of services to women students focusing on leadership development and mentoring. In addition, the program offers a wide range of programming for the entire student body on issues of gender and equality. Common topics covered include Women’s Health and Fitness, Safety and Sexuality, Women in the Workforce and Sexual Assault Awareness. The program also connects female students with community resources for internships and community service projects.
