The key word for eating at Towson University is “choice.” There are many great places to eat at TU. You can dine a la carte at over a dozen locations on campus or at three all-you-care-to-eat dining halls. Weekly or block meal plan options are available. Visit the Dining Services website for details.

Students who have a Dining Points debit account can use their OneCard to save 6 percent sales tax on food purchased at Dining Services locations. Please visit our website for information concerning meal plans, dining locations, hours of operation, menu or any other questions you might have.
