

MINOR IN THEATRE ARTS

The minor in theatre arts at Towson University is an excellent complement to other majors and an opportunity to explore an area of personal interest. The requirements of the minor offer considerable flexibility so students can craft a course of study that supports their individual goals.

The Theatre minor requires students to take 26-27 units in theatre arts. At least 12 of these units must be at the upper (300-400) level. Theatre minors must complete a minimum of 12 units of Theatre (THEA) courses at Towson University, with at least 6 of these at the upper-level.
