University Housing

Glen Complex
Connected to the rest of the campus by a bridge that crosses over the Glen, this complex includes four high-rise buildings housing about 425 students each. All student accommodations are suites, with two rooms sharing a bath. There is a lounge area on each floor and a centrally located dining hall in the complex.

Newell and Richmond Halls
These residence halls house approximately 300 students. Richmond is home to our STEM Residential Learning Community. These residence halls offer a variety of living arrangements for 1-3 residents per room.

Prettyman and Scarborough Halls
These low-rise residence halls enclose a garden courtyard and house approximately 160 students each.

Housing and Residence Life (https://www.towson.edu/studentlife/housing/campus/housing-residence-life) provides living facilities for full-time undergraduate degree candidates and promotes educational programs and activities that support TU's academic mission. The Housing and Residence Life staff and the University Residence Government strive to maintain an environment that encourages academic excellence, community responsibility and individual development.

Towson University offers on-campus housing for approximately 5,850 students.

- Resident students must sign a contract for university housing, renewable at the option of TU and must carry a minimum of 12 units.
- Housing facilities are available to students only when classes are in session.
- The Housing and Residence Life staff offers assistance and programs for resident students.
- A number of special living options are available, including but not limited to alcohol-free areas, honors housing, the Global Village, STEM and American Sign Language. All buildings are non-smoking.
- The off-campus housing listing service is available online (https://www.towson.edu/studentlife/housing/offcampus) for students looking for off-campus housing. For more information or assistance, contact the Office of Civic Engagement & Social Responsibility at 410-704-5304.
- Residents must vacate the residence halls after they complete their final term examination at the end of the school year.
- Please contact Housing and Residence Life concerning housing eligibility and availability.

Residence Tower
This 13-story, high-rise residence hall accommodates approximately 440 students in double and single rooms. There is a lounge area, study room and kitchen on each floor, and a recreation room and laundry facility on the lower level of the building. Residence Tower’s nine month housing is available to students who opted into nine month housing as part of the application process. Students who have elected for a nine month housing option are able to stay in their room during term breaks.

The Residences at 10 West Burke Avenue
This residence hall is the recently converted TU Marriott. It is a 15 story building housing approximately 380 students. This building has one and two bedroom apartment style rooms housing two to four residents per apartment. Nine-month housing is available and the apartments are open during term breaks.

Barton and Douglass Houses
These two residence halls house 650 students and are located in West Village. Each building contains premium double-occupancy rooms with private bathrooms and many lounge spaces. Douglass House is designated as the Honors College residence hall.

Towson Run Apartments
These one-, two-, and four-bedroom apartments for upper-level undergraduate students are fully furnished. In addition to double bedrooms, each apartment has a full kitchen and living/dining room. Approximately 420 students are housed at Towson Run. Nine-month housing is available and the apartments are open during term breaks.

Carroll and Marshall Halls
These two apartments house 700 students and are located in West Village. These apartments are primarily 4-bedroom with a few 2-bedroom apartments, each bedroom being a single with a full-sized bed. These fully furnished apartments have a kitchen with a dishwasher, living room and two bathrooms in 4-bedroom apartments (one bathroom in a 2-bedroom apartment). There are lounges on each floor for study. Nine-month housing is available and the apartments are open during term breaks.
